Re: Cyril Daniel Gordon

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Cyril Gordon shared his story with my congregation recently, and the people genuinely responded to his personable style and humble authenticity. He has a clear and moving testimony of faith in Jesus Christ. His zeal for evangelism is infectious, and his understanding of the Bible through the eyes of a "fulfilled-Jew" is extremely edifying. He appears to be ministering under the authority of the elders of his local church in Davis, California. I heartily recommend him to you to share his testimony with your congregation.

Enthusiastically,
