Happy New Year! God bless you and thank you for supporting our ministry. Please pray for outreach at the Atlanta Gift Show January 11-18.

MESSIANIC CONFERENCE (Orlando, Florida)-We equipped people with dozens of evangelistic t-shirts, copies of "The Green Velvet Missionary" and Gospel tracts! I met and shared with the Jewish Food Services Manager who grew up in the same neighborhood I did in New York. He was most excited!

"Again I ask: Did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all! Rather, because of their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel envious. But if their transgression means riches for the world, and their loss means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater riches will their fullness bring!"-Romans 11:11-12

Shalom Friends & Family,

An Afghani man working at a gas station was happy to receive a Bible! Mike Ogden, who helped us many times in Israel, was with us when we stopped for gas. He gave the Bible to the man. He and Eddie engaged him in conversation. We were going to a special prayer meeting Christmas day.

Eddie was wearing his "Yeshua loves you" shirt (in Hebrew) while distributing food to a Jewish veteran. Again, a conversation starter. The Vet was so happy to see Hebrew on one of the food packages and Eddie's shirt.

Meanwhile, Matzah had her surgery on Dec. 28 to remove a tumor from the base of her tail. It had doubled in size during the last 30 days. It involved the anal sphincter, so please pray for her complete healing & also pray for the Veterinarian; she is Jewish! I have had several conversations with her about God. She commented that I know more about Her religion than she does. Pray for increased curiosity!

Pray for Holy Spirit guidance for the many conversations; pray for divine appointments! We LOVE to talk about Yeshua! Pray for a source for Bibles. We never seem to have enough! Thank you and Bless you for supporting us in various ways! Love & Blessings in the New Year as you share Yeshua! Such a privilege!"

"First Friday was amazing again! As soon as we walked up to where we normally stand, brother Stan was witnessing to a young Jewish woman named Jackie. He let me continue talking with her. Kimberly and I got to share with several unsaved Jewish and Gentile people. The younger folks are definitely more receptive. Audrey moved here from New York and goes to a very progressive Synagogue (which she seemed very proud of).

Our last week at UNLV before winter break was finals week. A group of missionaries from YWAM came to set up Prayer stations around campus. What a blessing. As we walked to our parked cars, Doug (another Evangelist who shows up around the time that we leave) was witnessing to a young unsaved Jewish student named Michelle. I was able to pick up where he left off. She was quite polite and took a gospel tract.

We were in front of the Bellagio witnessing with a group of missionaries including our Pastor and his wife on a recent Friday night. While witnessing, I noticed a bunch of police cars racing up to the hotel. Then Spiderman (one of many dressed up characters on the Las Vegas strip), ran inside to check it out. Apparently, the poker room was robbed. We continued, mostly oblivious to it all.

Lastly, I was saddened and surprised that some Gentile and Jewish believers are against believers witnessing at special Jewish events. We had just been discussing this very thing at our Bible study the Wednesday night before. So, while leaving the gym in the morning, I was thinking about how Paul would always witness in the Synagogues first. "To the Jew first and then the Gentile". As I walked to my car in the parking lot, I prayed to God to lead me to an unsaved Jewish person, if I was doing the right thing. I literally drove to a Dutch Bros Coffee stand to buy a cup of coffee. As I handed the young woman at the drive-up window a Christmas tract and started talking, she told me that she was Jewish! Wow was that a quick answer to prayer! Praise the Lord!"
