Praise Report

Greetings from Los Angeles, California (AKA Gomorrah),

A warm thank you to all of you who are praying for us and supporting our efforts as we continue to faithfully lift up the holy name of JESUS in the heart of the enemy's camp—Venice Beach, California. The good news is that we are wreaking havoc in the enemy's camp as many people are hearing the gospel, obtaining salvation, getting baptized, receiving God's Word and prayer every day that we go out to Venice Beach. Here are some of the recent highlights:

A Jew gets baptized!

Joshua getting baptized by Pastor Gary

Praise God, a Jew named Joshua from Texas who grew up in a Conservative Jewish family in Chattanooga, Tennessee just got baptized by a local Japanese pastor named Gary Shiohama from South Bay Community Church. Pastor Gary and his team met Joshua and ministered to him at a Samaritan's Purse event when Joshua was starting to look into Jesus. Pastor Gary then introduced me to Joshua so that I could minister to him "Jew to Jew". Praise God that Joshua eventually came to faith in Jesus and was soon baptized.

Joshua says that ever since he was baptized, his walk with God has been better than ever. Joshua is now eager to share his new faith with his family and is excited about plugging into a good Bible believing church. Please pray for Joshua's spiritual growth as I continue to minister to him. 😊

Two local Jews take a step of faith in JESUS

Joshua (a Jew from Marina Del Rey) and his friend Rachel (a Jew from Venice) stopped by our Free Bibles table and got the gospel. They had both been searching for the truth in many different religions and were excited to learn that God's way is only through the Messiah of Israel— The Lord JESUS. As me and my Ministry Team ministered to them separately, they both decided to accept Jesus as their Lord and Savior that same day. Please pray for their spiritual growth as we follow up with them.

Palestinians get the gospel instead of an argument

Praise God! Palestinian Muslims: Tallal, Assad, and Atif all stopped by our Free Bibles table with hostility because we fly the Israeli flag from our canopy, but instead of getting into an argument over politics, they received the love of Jesus from two Jews. They were so moved by what Doug and I shared with them that one of them took a New Testament to read and another took a gospel tract with my testimony. Please pray for their salvation.
